Don't You Know?

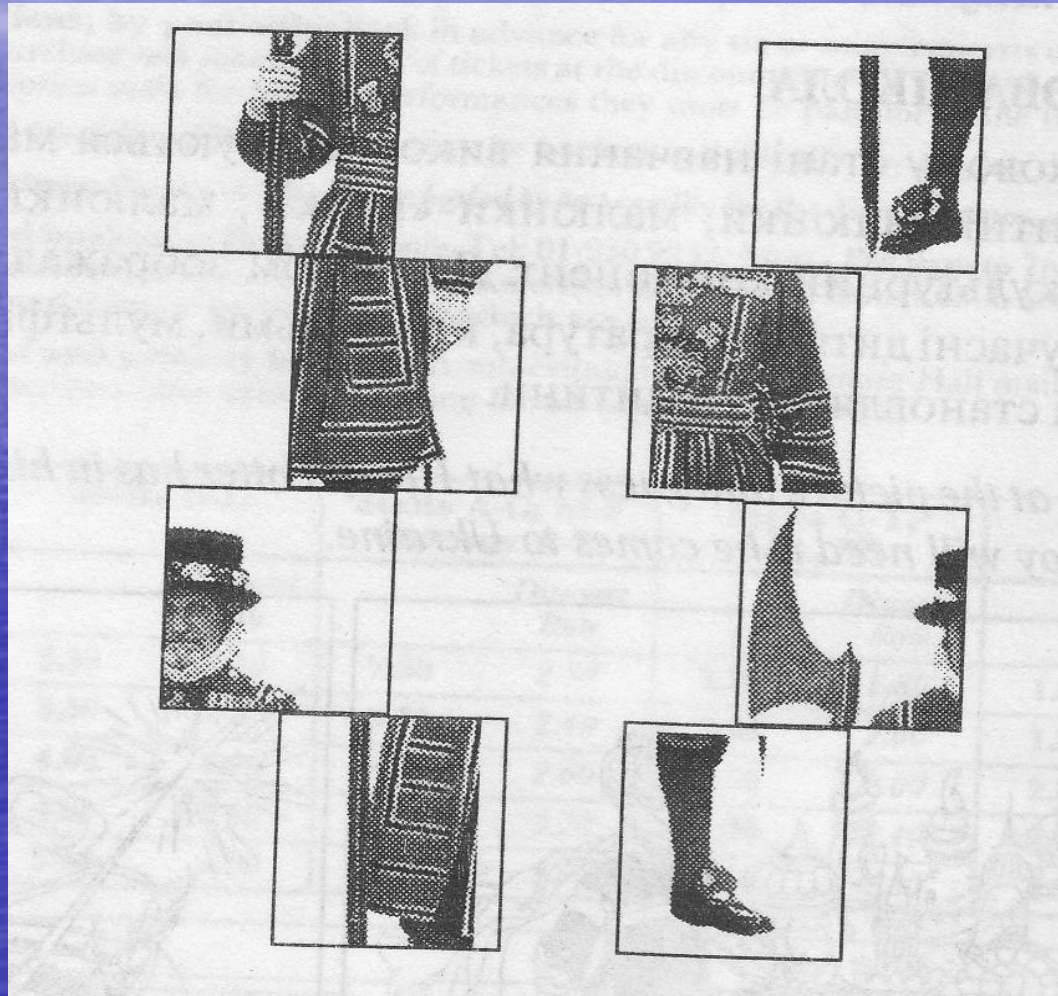

London is a wonderful place to be,
whether you're here for the first time or returning again.
There are many treasures to discover – quaint architecture, crooked alleyways, a plaque on a wall, old markets, fish and chips, hospitable people, the greenness of a garden or a park, the view from a red bus – besides all the renowned sights for which the capital is famous.

Indeed, Samuel Johnson's remark that "There is in London all that life can afford" still holds true.

To answer this question you have to:

- Find and read the descriptions of different sights of London;
- Collect the materials about ways of travelling;
- Conduct a survey among the students: what kind of travelling do they prefer, and why?
- Find the materials about different kinds of airports and their work
- Look for photos and drawings on the topic.

Look at the puzzle picture & guess who this person is & in what city you can see him.

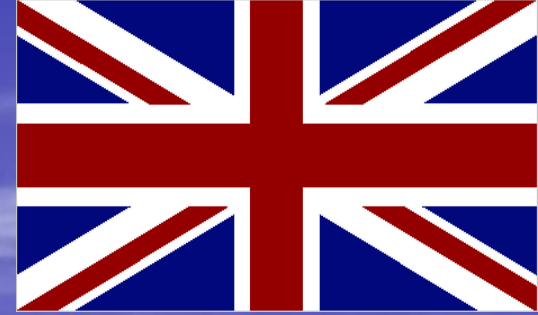

Traveling in London

London is a city full of sights, history & atmosphere. There are plenty of places to go. Wherever you are you'll find a bus & underground nearby. So you can reach any part of London easily & enjoy the ride. There are handy leaflets with maps and information to plan your journeys. If you need further information, 24-hour personal travel information by telephone is provided.

Look at the picture below & read the speech bubbles.
Roleplay the conversation between the characters.

So, would you like to go to London?

If yes, let's go!
The best way of traveling to the capital of GB & UK is traveling by plane.
